Public Services in France Functioning Despite May Strike

Government Thanks Those Who Continued to Work; About Half Usual Number of Trains Operated In and Out of Paris To-day; Freight Held Up.

Paris, May 3.—At a meeting of the Cabinet under the presidency of Premier Millerand this morning at which all the Ministers and Under-Secretaries of State were present, M. Le Troquer, Minister of Public Works, told the Ministers that all the essential public services had easily been kept functioning. This was possible, he said, because a large majority of the employees had remained at their posts.

The Ministers decided to express to these volunteers the thanks and gratitude of the Government.

Jules Steeg, Minister of the Interior, reported to the meeting the events of May Day, which he dismissed as "minor incidents."

Paris, May 3.—The strike situation in this city was generally stationary at the North and East stations this morning, only about fifty per cent. of the usual number of trains being in operation. At the St. Lazare station traffic was seriously affected. Virtually no freight trains were moved during the morning.

Protection.
Paris, May 3.—(Havas).—Workers throughout France will be protected by the Government against aggression by strikers, according to an interview with Yves Le Troquer, Minister of Public Works, printed in this morning's Matin. The Minister declares all measures to furnish necessities of life to the people have been taken and is optimistic that pending disputes will be settled by arbitration.

M. Monette, managing director of Labor Life, a weekly publication, which had been conducting a campaign for the continuation of the strike, was arrested this morning. This was the first arrest made by the police in connection with the railroad strike.

A Manifesto.
The General Federation of Labor last night issued a manifesto declaring it would continue the struggle and disclaiming all responsibility for the present events. It said it would not cease to defend the general interests of the nation and urged certain "indispensable measures, which even the most ardent strikers have proved necessary." The manifesto recapitulated its programme, comprising a national economic council, an international commission to regulate raw materials, an international fleet under the League of Nations to bring down freights, re-organization of the railroads and other measures.

Marseilles Paralyzed.
Marseilles, May 3.—This harbor is almost completely paralyzed by the general strike. No ships have left since the walkout was declared and the docks are deserted.

OVER FIFTY ARE KILLED BY STORM

Cyclone Tears Village in State of Oklahoma to Pieces

Muskogee, Okla., May 3.—More than fifty persons are known to have been killed and approximately 100 were injured in a cyclone that virtually wiped out Peggs, a small village in the northwest corner of Cherokee County, about 9 o'clock last night.

Forty-three bodies have been recovered by rescue workers. More are believed to be in the wreckage. Only three buildings remained standing after the storm had passed. Whole families were crushed to death when their homes were torn to pieces. Nine members of the Levens family were killed, seven of the Levens family, eight persons by the name of Frank, and five members of the Wilkerson family.

Forty-two coffins are being sent to the scene from Tahlequah. This is as many as could be found in the city.

Temporary hospitals have been established about the wreckage and scores of severely injured are being given first aid. Those who can stand the trip to Tahlequah are being taken there, where they will be placed in hospitals.

Hudson's Bay Company Event on Red River in Manitoba

Thousands of Winnipeggers Watched Fur Brigades and York Boats Start

Winnipeg, May 3.—Picturesque in its entirety and epitomizing in every possible way the activities of the Hudson's Bay Company during the last two and a half centuries, a pageant arranged to commemorate the founding of the company was staged on the Red River to-day. Among the prominent officials taking part was Sir Robert Kindersley, the Governor of the province.

Thousands of people on both banks witnessed the formation and starting of the Indian fur brigades and York Lower Fort Garry. The picturesque nature of the proceedings made a strong appeal to the spectators.

The assembling of the pageant was carried out successfully, and the canoes got away with all the proficiency and precision which mark Indian paddlemen.

NEW CORPORATION IS TAKING SHAPE

British Empire Steel Corporation Will Be Second Only to U. S. Steel

Montreal, May 3.—The new British Empire Steel Corporation, the largest consolidated concern in the British Empire, and second only to the United States Steel Corporation, has now emerged from the nebulous stage into that of definite existence as an imperial organization. Capitalized at $500,000,000, this consolidation of steel, coal and transportation companies associating the iron and coal deposits of the Atlantic seaboard of the Dominion with the steel-making and financial resources of Great Britain, is now accomplished fact, according to Col. W. Grant Morden. Outlining the aims and prospects of the great merger, he announced the division of the stock of the various companies in the Corporation as follows:

Authorized To be issued
7 per cent. cumulative pfd.	$50,000,000 $ 37,000,000
8 per cent. cumulative pfd.	100,000,000 25,000,000
7 per cent. non-cumulative preferred	150,000,000 68,000,000
Common	200,000,000 77,000,000

Authoritative details as to the terms on which the bare main companies participating in the Corporation are to enter the new merger, subject to the shareholders' approval, are as follows:

Imperial Steel Corporation—$95 par value in 7 per cent. non-cumulative preferred stock of the new corporation plus $70 in common stock to each holder of $100 of the security known by market followers as "Iron common."

Larkin To-day Sentenced to Five to Ten Years

New York, May 3.—Extraordinary precautions were taken to-day when James J. Larkin, Irish agitator, convicted last week of criminal anarchy, was sentenced to five to ten years in the state prison at hard labor. Fifteen detectives guarded the courtroom, which was filled with Larkin sympathizers.

One young woman was rebuked by the court when she rose and attempted to take Larkin's hand as he was led away.

Several women shook hands with Larkin and the mother of former Assemblyman Gitlow, now serving a sentence for criminal anarchy, embraced him.

DEATHS ARE CAUSED BY FALLING WALLS IN VERMONT CITY

Burlington, Vt., May 3.—At least two were killed and an unknown number injured by the collapse of three walls of the W. C. Hoag Toy Factory here to-day. A weakened second floor structure is believed to have been the cause of the accident.

Immediately after the accident the police said it was possible that many more persons were buried in the debris. How many were in the building when it collapsed was not known.

Cattle Driving Raiders Active in Western Ireland

London, May 3.—The land agitation in West Ireland is continuing to make rapid headway, according to a dispatch to The London Times, and has spread to County Clare. Cattle driving and other forms of intimidation are said to be of almost daily occurrence. Grazing lands are stripped of their stock, fences and gates are broken, walls are smashed and houses fired into by armed parties. Large and small holders alike are the victims. The dispatch says it is openly boasted that the "coming fight in the test for land will be one of the biggest things the country has seen for some time."

COAL PRICES HAVE ADVANCED AGAIN

Retailers Declare They Will Gain Nothing by the Increase

Coal advanced $1 per ton Saturday, the advance bringing the price to the same figure as will now prevail on the Mainland. Hitherto, for some months the price has been 50 cents a ton higher in Vancouver and adjacent cities. The new price is $13.50 for lump coal, and $13 for nut coal.

Retail fuel merchants here state to The Times that they will not benefit a cent from the advance, which will be all absorbed in four principal increases: (a) An advance of 55 cents per ton to the mine. (b) A towing charge advance of 10 cents per ton. (c) An increase to the men employed in the handling of coal at the wharves and delivery of 25 cents per day. (d) An increase in gasoline and oil for deliveries.

AMMONIA PRODUCED BY A NEW PROCESS

Italian Chemist Discovers Synthetic Method; Will Make Big Quantities

Rome, May 3.—Production of synthetic ammonia is announced by Dr. Casale, prominent in Italian chemical industry, who says he has solved the problem by the use of special machinery and a chemical reagent of his own invention.

The process requires no materials except air and water, and works automatically without expense for attention, energy or materials. It forces a mixture of nitrogen and hydrogen through catalyzing tubes at a pressure of 250 atmospheres and transforms the two gases into pure ammonia.

Dr. Casale expects soon to employ units that will enable Italy to have 300,000 tons of ammonia for fertilizers each year, besides surplus production for export. The undertaking is financed by American capital and the plant has been visited by Alfred Denis, an American commercial attaché here, who has reported to Washington.

Before being led to the scaffold, he begged that his last request in life be granted—that he be allowed to wear the silk shirt which the former Russian Emperor was wearing when he killed him with bullets. It was granted."

Those who spoke at length with the murderer believe he slew the former Czar mainly because he wanted the shirt.

Warsaw, May 3.—Polish forces occupied Kiev Sunday, according to extra editions of the newspapers here to-day. General Pilsudski, President of the Polish State, led the troops into the city, the newspapers say.

The Polish advance into the Ukraine along a front of 180 miles, began early last week for the announced purpose of expelling the "foreign invaders" or Russian Bolsheviki.

The Ukraine as an independent republic would create a buffer state between Poland and the Bolsheviki. Kiev is the capital of the Ukraine and the outlet for its vast stores of agricultural products.

General Pilsudski, head of the Polish State, announced that after the expulsion of the Bolsheviki the Poles would remain only until an authorized Ukrainian Government took control.

Saskatoon, May 3.—A citizens' volunteer search party yesterday afternoon found the body of Mansell Stebbins, aged seventeen, who had been missing from his home since

SWEDEN MOURNS DEATH OF PRINCESS

Crown Princess Gustave Adolph Was a Victim of Blood Poisoning

Stockholm, May 2.—Via London, May 3.—The entire nation has been plunged into mourning by the death yesterday of Crown Princess Gustave Adolph of Sweden, daughter of the Duke of Connaught. King Gustave, who was in Nizza, and Queen Victoria, who had just arrived in Baden, beside of her sick mother in Baden, have been notified and are returning for the funeral.

The official report of the physicians who attended the Crown Princess gives the cause of death as general blood poisoning or pyemia. She had suffered from inflammation of the ear and underwent an operation last December, and this was followed by maxillary suppuration. Last Friday morning erysipelas developed around the right ear, but the Crown Princess still appeared to be in no danger, and her little daughter, Ingrid, one of the five children, was permitted to go to her dancing lesson, being told that "mother couldn't accompany her because she was ill." The Crown Princess was able to be up Saturday morning, but suffered a sudden change for the worse, and died within a few hours. Weakness of the heart, augmented by the Crown Princess' expectant motherhood, was given as the contributing cause of her death.

Duke of Connaught.

London, May 3.—The Duke of Connaught received the news of the death of his daughter, the Crown Princess of Sweden, when he returned to London Saturday night from Bagshot for a small family birthday party, which was promptly concluded, the tragic coincidence of his bereavement happening on the Duke's seventieth birthday. The occurrence has excited universal sympathy. The Duke was to have opened today the Canadian Hotel, provided with the 30,000 presented to the late Duchess by Canadian women. This engagement was abandoned.

Kappert fired five shots into his wife's body, two of them passing through the body of the baby clasped in the mother's arms.

The couple had recently become estranged.

INCREASED FORAGE CROP AREAS URGED

Dominion Department of Agriculture Advises Farmers to Grow More

Ottawa, May 3.—(Canadian Press)—With every probability that meat prices will remain fairly high for some time to come, and with a desire to do everything possible to combat as far as possible the present high cost of living, the Federal Department of Agriculture is planning to overcome at least one element of the difficulty by inaugurating a comprehensive campaign for an increase of forage crops in Canada for the coming year.

Dr. H. J. Grisdale, Assistant to the Minister of Agriculture, stated that while every member of the Government recognized that the potential possibilities for livestock in this country were enormous, it was essential that something more be done to develop the forage crops to the fullest possible extent in order that a sufficient quantity of feed could be provided to carry stock over long and severe winters. This applied particularly to the prairie provinces, where the serious droughts of the last two seasons had caused great hardships to the cattle, through the cutting off of supplies of prairie hay, which, with green sheaves, constituted practically the whole feed supply of these animals during the winter.

Almost Unlimited.

"The possibilities for the production of such feed have been demonstrated to be practically unlimited in almost every district of the Dominion," said Dr. Grisdale. "On every experimental farm in Canada we produced last season, probably the most trying year ever experienced in this country, forage quite sufficient to carry much more than the quantity of livestock that is carried on the average farm of the size of these institutions."

In Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, Western rye grass, brome grass and oats have been proved to produce abundant crops of these forages no matter how dry the season, provided always that the fields devoted to such crops are handled in the right way," continued Dr. Grisdale.

One-Half More.

"No stockman on the prairie should fail to plan to grow this year one-quarter to one-half more of this forage crop. Experimental farm weather records show that because one winter has been severe, it does not by any means follow that the next will be mild. The farm or rancher who has his livestock can get through the winter of 1920-1921 on half the feed it would take under average conditions, in a fair, if not certain, way to lose his stock and get himself and probably his neighbors into a lot of trouble. Such an example of 'nervousness' is usually only too apt to influence the neighbors and lead to trouble throughout the district."

High Prices.

Probabilities are that meat prices will keep up for some years to come, and hence any surplus feed will still almost certainly be a safe investment, even at the present rather high cost of production. Unlike cereals, forage can be held from year to year at practically no cost. All that is needed is a little care in marketing, and a fence around it to protect it from livestock.

"The well-made stack of well-made hay, held in reserve year by year, is the best insurance against loss and the best investment any cattle man can have in practically every district in this country," concluded the Deputy Minister.

One Great Essential To a Woman's Health Is Her Nerves

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long, instead of being sick and wretched. But how can any woman be healthy and happy when the whole nervous system is unstrung. The trouble is they pay more attention to their social and household duties than they do to their health. Is it any wonder then that they become irritable and nervous, have hot flushes, faint and dizzy spells, smothering and sinking spells, become weak and nervous, and everything in life becomes dark and gloomy.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the very remedy that nervous, tired-out, weary women need to restore them to the blessings of good health. Mrs. P. H. Ryan, San Point, N. S. writes: "I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles. I was so weak and nervous I could not sleep at night any more. I had hot flushes and fainting spells. When I was on my second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I began to feel better and kept on until I had used six boxes when I felt like a different person. I am never without them in the house and I recommend them to all who suffer with their nerves."

Served Twenty-five Years in Navy, Including War Period

Nelson, B. C., May 3.—Capt. W. A. Cooke-Hurle, who served twenty-five years in the Royal Navy, including full service in the late war, died here yesterday, aged forty-four years, leaving a widow and two children. He rose from one command to another during the war, being latterly commodore in command of convoys in the Atlantic and later in the Mediterranean. He was a retired officer, commanding the West Arm of Kootenay Lake, when the war broke out, and started for England on August 6, 1914.

FUNERAL OF LATE HON. A. G. MACKAY

Owen Sound, Ont., May 3.—One of the largest funerals ever seen in Owen Sound was that of the late Hon. Alexander Grant Mackay, Minister of Municipal Affairs of Alberta, and former Liberal Leader in the Province of Ontario, which was held here on Saturday.

The overflowed crowds were addressed by Hon. Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture of Alberta, and J. C. Elliott, ex-M. P. P. These speakers and the minister of the church paid high tribute to Mr. Mackay.

WIRELESS TELEPHONE PLAN IN MANITOBA

Winnipeg, May 3.—Experiments with the wireless telephone between Winnipeg and Selkirk are being carried on to test the practicability of this means of communication with isolated points in the far north, according to an announcement by Prof. R. C. Wallace, commissioner for Northern Manitoba. Installation of the wireless telephones will be started early next year if the experiments prove the value of the instruments in the northern climatic conditions.

ROAD CONVENTION IN WINNIPEG SOON

Canadian Good Roads Association Gathering Will Assemble June 1.

Montreal, May 2.—At least two sections of roadway will be built by experts during the forthcoming convention of the Canadian Good Roads Association at Winnipeg, which opens on June 1, and will last until June 3 at the Royal Alexandra Hotel, so that the hundreds of delegates attending will be able to have a practical demonstration of the manner in which highways are built. Offers have been received from the Grain Growers, Ltd., of Winnipeg, and from the Canadian Iron Ingot Co. of Guelph to construct sections of gravel or earth roads during the convention, supplying all the necessary men and machinery, and their offer will almost certainly be accepted. Most of the roads in this part of the Dominion are likely to be of gravel, earth or macadam for the next decade, and the demonstrations that will be given will, therefore, be of much value to the delegates who will attend from all the municipalities who become members of the Association. It is also probable that other roads of concrete, asphalt or macadam will be built during the convention, under the supervision of the most expert highway officials of the continent.

Apart from the practical demonstration, the delegates will also be shown cinematograph films of the processes of constructing waterbound macadam, earth, cement concrete, asphaltic concrete, tar macadam, gravel and other roads, which are being loaned by the Ontario Government, through W. A. McBean, the deputy minister of highways.

Many Subjects.
The tentative official programme of the convention, which will be presided over by S. L. Squire, the president, and be attended by official representatives of every government in the Dominion, shows that a wide variety of subjects will be brought before the delegates. The morning of the opening day of the convention will be devoted to registration of delegates, followed by the formal opening of the convention by the Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba, Sir James A. McCreary, and addresses by the Government representatives from the different provinces. The demonstrations of actual road building will commence at noon on the opening day, and at the afternoon session there will be an address on the federal aid to be given by the Dominion Government for the construction of main highways.

In this connection the U. S. Government Bureau of Public Roads are sending a special delegate from Washington to speak on State aid for highways. The Dominion Highways Commission are particularly interested in this matter, and will have one or more official representatives at the convention.

Gravel Roads.
The important part played by gravel roads in the development of the country will be looked after by an efficient provincial engineer from the East, who will address the convention on this subject, while a provincial minister from the same district will speak on Surface and Subsoil Drainage, and a well-known Manitoba engineer will speak on highway bridges and culverts. The annual dinner and entertainment of the association will be held in the evening of the opening day of the convention.

On the second day the value of roads as an aid of agriculture will be discussed, followed by a paper emphasizing the importance of foundations in road building. From across the border a prominent State highway engineer will inform the delegates on the best method of improving and maintaining earth, clay and sand roads, while the broken stone roads will be the subject of another paper. At noon the annual meeting of the Canadian Automobile Association will be held at which delegates from all the important automobile clubs of the Dominion will be present.

Financing.
Some valuable suggestions on the financing of a provincial highway system will be put forward at the afternoon session by a representative of the Federal Government, followed by an address on the bituminous treatment of sand roads, and papers on road dragging and various methods of road maintenance. The annual meeting of the Good Roads Association will be held in the evening for the election of officers for the ensuing year.

On the third day of the convention an eminent soldier-scholar from Ontario will speak on schools for highway engineering, while another well-known professor of highway engineering will give an address on road machinery, followed by a paper on Asphaltic Concrete Pavements, and one on cement concrete roads.

At the afternoon session the opening address will emphasize the importance of a central association in assisting the local good roads associations, which must look after district improvements, and this will be followed by an interesting paper on traffic matters.

The remainder of the programme will be devoted to papers on road oils and carpal coats, economical methods of transporting road materials, and the use of refined tar in construction and maintenance. There will be free discussion on all subjects that are brought before the convention, while speakers will be prepared to answer any questions on local problems that may be brought before them.

A very large number of delegates have already signified their intention of being present, and as entertainment is being provided for the lady members of the party, the convention is likely to be one of the most successful held by the Association.

LEAVES ONTARIO LIBERTY LEAGUE

Lieut.-Col. Machin Resigns Presidency in Disgust; Says
Many Members Selfish

Toronto, May 3.—Lieut.-Colonel H. A. C. Machin, ex-M.P.P., has resigned the presidency of the Citizens' Liberty League in disgust.

In a letter to Secretary T. L. Caruthers, tendering his resignation, Colonel Machin pours out his heart in a scathing attack on the League, which he says he has joined in the belief that it was a body of men who were not selfish, but who were interested in the public good, and who were not interested in their own pockets, but in the public good.

Colonel Machin says he spent $3,500 personally in connection with the League and has received no support from the wealthy. He expressed a desire to see the people get back to the days "when rugged honesty and truth were our national bulwarks," and to abolish "all rotten hypocrisy which at present exists, particularly on this subject."

CHURCH CENTENARY.

Women as Brave As the Men

THEIR STRUGGLE SHOWS A REMARKABLE SPIRIT.

Talk of the bravery of men, but where can you find a finer spirit than among the half-sick women who are fighting and struggling to do their duty against the terrible odds of ill-health, and who will not give up.

One woman in every three is struggling against weakness. Most of them are not exactly sick, but, oh, how miserable!

The burden and misery of it all has its foundation in the blood which is thin and watery. The red cells are too few. The very stream of life is reduced in vitality. Weakness and inevitable ill-health are the certain result.

Every ailing or weak woman can quickly regain her health in this very simple way. By filling the system with the nutrition that comes from rich red blood, a quick change for the better will result. To accomplish this, take two chocolate-coated Ferrozone Tablets after each meal. You'll feel better immediately for the simple reason that Ferrozone restores the blood. It gives you vim, vigor, endurance, restores a tired, worn-out system very quickly.

You'll feel like new all over once you get Ferrozone working through your blood. It puts color into faded cheeks, brightens the eye, quickens the step, brings back that wonderful feeling of youth.

One of the finest things Ferrozone does is to make you eat lots and digest it as well. With keen appetite, sound sleep, strong nerves and lots of nourishing blood you're bound to regain robust health. Any sickly woman or ailing woman that Ferrozone won't make well must be incurable. There is a secret power in Ferrozone and it is worth a trial at all events. Fifty cents per box, six for $2.50. At all dealers in medicine, or by mail from The Catarthozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

M.P. For Many Years; Opposed
Home Rule

London, May 3.—A dispatch from Dublin last evening told of the death there yesterday of the Rt. Hon. Sir Thomas Wallace Russell. He was born February 28, 1841.

Sir Thomas Wallace Russell for many years was a member of the House of Commons, where he took an active part against the Home Rule movement in its early days. He was the principal promoter of the Land Acts Committee in 1884, which resulted in passing the Land Act of 1886. He wrote a history of the relations of the British Empire covering the period from 1800 to 1900, and also a book on the Irish land question.

MINING OUTLOOK IN NORTH MANITOBA

One of Original Flin Flon Men Says Future Is Bright

Winnipeg, May 3.—Within the next five years the development of the mining country of northern Manitoba will be of such a nature that it will have become the greatest mining district in Canada, according to J. E. Hammel, of Toronto, one of the original owners of the Flin Flon copper mine. Work to cost $250,000 will be done on the Flin Flon property this year, he said, and will be spent in sinking two shafts to a 500-foot level in order to find out the physical character of the ore, a proceeding that must take place before mining on a large scale is commenced. Mr. Hammel said that before a return on the money invested in the mine could be gained $10,000,000 would have to be spent in development work, including the erection of a smelting plant.

The mine recently was sold to a syndicate representing English, Canadian and American capital, and Mr. Hammel is satisfied that there will be no hold-up on this score. Mr. Hammel stated that he was practically certain that the company would be able to guarantee an output of at least 2,000 tons, if not 5,000 tons of ore blaster copper per day to take effect three years from now. This guarantee would be forwarded to the Provincial Government, which was under obligation to construct a railroad eighty miles in length into the mining district to handle the output, which will cost approximately $2,700,000, and be handed over when completed to the National Railways for operation.

JOE KNIGHT WAS HEARD IN WINNIPEG

The meeting was called by the central council of the One Big Union.

LOYD GEORGE IS CALLED A WRECKER

Speakers at Scottish Liberal Federation Meeting Score
Coalition

London, May 2.—(Canadian Associated Press)—At a Scottish Liberal Federation meeting held in Glasgow, there was a provocative display and considerable feeling between Asquith and Lloyd George Wings. The main question was whether the executive committee's report should be referred back because it had omitted an expression of appreciation of the work done by the Liberal-Coalitionists and Premier Lloyd George. The prominent Coalitionists attending the meeting included Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, Rt. Hon. Robert Munro, the Scottish Secretary, Rt. Hon. Ian Macpherson, the Pensions Minister, and Sir William Sutherland, the Scottish Liberal Coalition Whip.

These Ministers spoke amid considerable interruption on the motion that the report should be referred back. This motion was defeated by a considerable majority amid great excitement. Premier Lloyd George was described as a wrecked of Liberalism and the whole tone of the meeting was unmistakably hostile to the Coalition.

The meeting at Oxford of the home countries on Liberal Federation, though less bitter, betrayed a similar cleavage of Liberal opinion.

QUIET MAY DAY.

Considering the times and circumstances the observance of May Day throughout the world was exceptionally peaceful. In France particularly a very lively celebration was anticipated and in some quarters it was predicted that there would develop a condition which would assume the proportions of a revolution. Certainly this was the objective of the promoters of the general strike which, they declared, would paralyze the industrial activities of the whole of France. Apparently, however, the Government had laid its plans well and demonstrated that it was quite prepared to deal with any movement of a revolutionary character. In any case, judging by dispatches received from France yesterday and today, May Day left that country comparatively tranquil, nothing more serious than a few isolated riots having occurred instead of the great social upheaval radical extremists foreshadowed. In Great Britain the celebration of May Day was even less eventful, the occasion being used by labor as a holiday, and the demonstrations which took place being of an orderly nature. To preachers and promoters of revolution this May Day must have been a profound disappointment. Evidently it has not yet dawned upon them that the more people see of revolutions the less they like them; that no matter how difficult may be their present position in an economic sense, it would be many times worse under conditions of anarchy and chaos, and they, therefore, prefer to adopt the principle of safety first and stick to the ballot box as the means of effecting such changes and reforms as they desire.

THE POLISH ADVANCE.

The average reader, no doubt, long since has given up as a hopeless task all attempts to envisage the Russian situation with any measure of clearness, so the invasion of the Ukraine by the Poles will have no special significance except to a very few who have been able to follow developments in that country with something like close attention. The purpose of the Polish movement, Warsaw reports, is to clear the Bolshevik out of the Ukraine, but whether the Poles are actually animated by so unselfish an object remains to be seen. They and the Ukrainians were fighting one another very bitterly a short time ago, and although they compromised their differences, it is somewhat surprising to discover that either of them is ready to sacrifice blood and treasure in fighting for the other. Nevertheless, it is obvious that the Ukrainians have not resisted the Polish advance, which is now close to Kiev, the most important centre in the Ukraine and one of the largest cities in Russia. If an alliance between Poland and the Ukraine actually exists it should prove a formidable barrier to any western advance of the Bolsheviks if Trotsky and Lenin entertain such a scheme.

AFTER LLOYD GEORGE AGAIN.

Whatever may be the faults of the British Prime Minister there is nothing in his happily small catalogue of shortcomings sufficiently unbefitting his important position to warrant the type of newspaper attack to which he is periodically subjected by the Northcliffe chain of journals. Many times during the last twelve months The London Times has endeavored to prepare the coffin for the political remains of Mr. Lloyd George. Unlike some other public men upon whom the big boss of Printing House Square has bestowed his temporary favor the little Welshman does not belong to the school of political marionettes whose movements are responsive to any particular jerk outside that of public opinion.

The latest attack appears to imply that the Prime Minister's policy in connection with the negotiations now being carried on between Great Britain and Soviet Russia owes its origin to Mr. George Lansbury's report on conditions as he found them in Moscow a few months ago. In fact The Times goes so far as to assert that Lansbury was carefully shepherded during his stay in the old Russian capital, that the behavior of townspeople and workmen was staged for the special delectation of the British Socialist, and that no sooner had Mr. Lansbury departed than the city slid back into its temporarily suspended chaotic state concerning which The Times assumes to have authoritative information. The suggestion does not carry much weight and as part of a campaign to create prejudice against the Prime Minister's policy towards Soviet Russia it will fail.

Obviously the world desires reliable information about conditions in Russia and while nobody proposes to believe that the Moscow of to-day is the Moscow of pre-war days, conviction is lacking in the suggestion from Printing House Square that the Soviet workman, if he has done all the diabolical things of which he has been pronounced guilty—and no doubt he has done many of them—is in any mood to care two straws what opinion may be given to the outside world by a man of Mr. Lansbury's advanced views. On the other hand, those upon whose authority a special order for circumspect behavior for Mr. Lansbury's benefit would be issued are in a position to appreciate the manner in which the British people would accept his version.

THE DIVORCE MILL AT OTTAWA.

Judging by the number of bills "for the relief" of sundry persons, which are being passed at Ottawa just now the divorce machinery of Parliament is operating at a speed without parallel in its history. We would assume from them that the divorce committee of the Senate whose duty it is to investigate petitions for the annulment of marriages, take evidence both ways, and report to the House, is one of the busiest committees at the capital. Many of the cases are the unhappy consequences of the war, the separation of husbands and wives in those instances resulting in the development of such circumstances as have induced one side or the other to petition Parliament to make the gap permanent.

These petitions are from residents of those provinces which, since Confederation, have been subject to the direct jurisdiction of Parliament in respect of divorces, instead of that of the courts. The admission of some of the Western and Maritime provinces into the Dominion did not disturb the procedure for divorce which existed in them at that time and their cases continued to be tried by the courts. A recent high judicial decision placed Manitoba in the same position, so only three of the Canadian Provinces, we think, are without their own divorce courts, and petitioners residing in them must apply to Parliament for divorce by legislation.

There is a bill before Parliament now for the establishment of such courts in Ontario and Prince Edward Island and, if this be passed, the scope of the divorce committee of the Senate will be confined to the investigation of petitions from the province of Quebec. Divorces by the parliamentary process are so expensive, especially in the cases of petitioners who have to travel any considerable distances, as to be prohibitive to persons with lean pocket-books. Probably the time will come soon when this function will be removed from the purview of Parliament altogether and placed entirely within that of the courts, where it would seem properly to belong.

There is a suggestion in The London Times that the British Labor delegation which left London last week on a tour of inspection to Soviet Russia will be hoodwinked by the "Reds." This Northcliffe mouthpiece declares in other words that "a special show" was put on for the benefit of Mr. George Lansbury and that the dose will be repeated for Messrs. Philip Snowden and Company. We should imagine, however, that the Soviet Government would have very little difficulty in "trotting" a delegation from the House of Lords "up the garden" at a very much more rapid pace than it will find possible in the case of the party now on its way.

There evidently is no need for the retention of the Public Utilities Commission of this Province. As the Attorney-General correctly said in the Legislature, during the debate on the Repealing Act, "the birds have flown." That being the case there is no further use for the cage—the bill now before the Ottawa House notwithstanding. The cost of the Commission could be put to more useful purposes just now.

Recrimination and retaliation are not only undignified and unworthy of organizations so important as municipal councils but—what is much worse—they create conditions injurious to the public interest. The interests of Victoria and Saanich are so closely interwoven that neither can harm the other without harming itself.

If there should be any individual on the American continent who has the slightest vestige of doubt about the climate of Victoria he should take one glance at the April—the "showery" month—record of daily bright sunshine and then decide to accept that sample as typical of the bulk.

May Day was the to-morrow a very large number of people worried about last Friday—and it did not come off.

WATER AND BISHOP WILBERFORCE

(The London Observer)
Bishop Wilberforce was a great man and did a great work, but he would not have recommended himself to the modern prohibitionist. He once administered a rebuke to the daughter of one of his father's old friends who had taken a great part in the anti-slavery agitation. The lady in question, who owed her large fortune to a brewery, being badly smitten with the teetotal mania, had caused a very fine cellar of wine which she had inherited to be poured down her kitchen sink. She was, however, very fond of the bishop, and when he came to stay with her told him quietly at dinner that though only temperance drinks would be served he would be charged with champagne water, "that our habits won't suit you, but," added he, lowering his voice, "I'll take care to see that there is a bottle of water in your bedroom."

ELECTION FUNDS PUBLICITY

(Grain Growers' Guide)
Nothing has contributed more to the long and shameful record of parliamentary corruption, lobbying, degradation of parliamentary institutions, lowering of public life, and of the standards by which public life should be measured than the method which has prevailed thus far throughout the whole history of Canadian political parties of obtaining the party funds for election campaign purposes. Foremost among the national reforms advocated in the New National Policy is the abolition, by means of publicity, of the securing of campaign funds from interests looking for legislative favors.

The public is entitled to know the names of all contributors to the election expenses of all candidates, and to know also how all the money so contributed has been expended in the election campaign. There should be a list of contributors and of the amounts contributed by them published in each constituency. The full daylight of publicity should shine upon all particulars of the sources of financial aids of the candidates. This election publicity should be provided for in the Elections Act, and it should be enforced with summary severity upon all offenders against the act.

FEDERAL LAW TO GOVERN DISPUTES

Labor Law Commission Recommends Change Affecting Policemen and Firemen

Ottawa, May 3.—(Canadian Press)—The Royal Commission on the Unification of Labor Laws throughout Canada brought in the important recommendation on Saturday that all disputes affecting policemen and firemen should come under the jurisdiction of the Federal law.
Another important recommendation is to the effect that all disputes in mines and public utilities should be dealt with exclusively by Federal legislation. This includes public utilities under control of the provinces.
The Commission, which held sessions all week, concluded its meetings on Saturday.

Mining.
Owing to a clerical mistake, an error crept into the report on mining laws which appeared in the papers of Saturday.
The third clause of the recommendations should read eight hours instead of nine hours, as follows:
"In order to bring uniformity in mining laws providing for not more than eight hours as a legal day's work, as incorporated already wholly or partly in the existing laws of Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario, Quebec and the Yukon."

This does not represent any change in the recommendations of the committee.
The committee on industrial legislation, concluding its report, said it lacked information enabling it to decide upon the advisability of the extension of the present Federal law to other industries and therefore made no recommendation.

Winnipeg, Man., May 3.—While the celebration of the 250th anniversary of the Hudson's Bay Company in May will centre in Winnipeg, Edmonton, Calgary, Vancouver and Victoria, all Western Canada will share in the holiday spirit of the occasion. Lethbridge, Macleod, Kamloops, Nelson, Vernon and Yorkton, where the company has depots, will be gaily decorated. The H.B.C. banner will be unfurled from the flag staffs of all of the company's white, Indian and every trapper, 150 fur posts and every trapper, from the Arctic Ocean to the Pacific coast will know the company has arrived at another milestone in its two centuries and a half of romance and history, and at each post in the great fur country appropriate celebrations will be held.

The company was born on May 2, 1670, when Charles II. signed its charter. In the next few years its first posts were founded on the shores of Hudson Bay. The landmarks of the past are still standing—Rupert House, Moose Factory, Albany, York Factory and Churchill. For two centuries, it was the sole ruler of Western Canada and when in 1821 it was amalgamated with its old rival, the North West company, its sovereignty embraced perhaps three-fourths of the North American continent.

Though the company ceased to be a ruler in 1870 when it surrendered its authority and territories to Canada, its loss of sovereign power proved the loss of vital energy. Now its empire gone, it has become a great modern merchant with a chain of departmental stores extending across Western Canada. With its across Western Canada. With its old trapping rounds transformed into farms and cities, it has more fur posts to-day than ever before in its history. And in the last few years, it has thriven upon all its remaining lands to farm settlers and become one of the great colonizing forces in Canada.

The last survivor of the companies chartered by English sovereigns in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries for the colonization of America, it is now the oldest commercial corporation in the world. The history of the company was for two centuries the history of Western Canada and the pageants to be held in the five largest cities of the West, to celebrate the company's birthday, will commemorate as well the romance of a nation's birth and development.

THREE KILLED ON MAY DAY IN PARIS

Paris, May 3.—Official figures issued yesterday gave the casualties resulting from the disorders of May Day as three dead and 192 wounded, of whom six were in hospital. The disorders were in a dangerous condition. The arrests aggregated 102.

The foreigners among those arrested are to be released. Alexander Blanc, an extreme Socialist Deputy, who was injured, will be prosecuted on a charge of abuse of the police.

NO NEW CARDINALS.

Rome, May 3.—Confirmation of reports that no cardinal will be created at the coming consistory has been received from an official source at the Vatican. The consistory will concern itself entirely with the work of the canonization of Joan of Arc and Marie Alacoque, a French mystic and nun who died in 1690.

Another consistory may possibly be held in June, but it is possible it will be postponed until the end of the year, when the question of the creation of new American cardinals will be considered.

Creation of cardinals is a personal prerogative of the Pontiff and therefore any reports as to who may be given the red hat are considered pure conjecture.

POULTRY PROMOTER
NAMED FOR QUEBEC

The Civil Service Commission announced recently that Abel Raymond, R. S. A., demonstrator in Megantic County, was the successful applicant for the position of District Poultry Promoter for Quebec. Mr. Raymond has already commenced his duties, under the direction of the Live Stock Branch of the Federal Department of Agriculture. After acquainting himself more fully with the systems of organization and methods of quality payment followed by co-operative marketing organizations in Ontario, and, if necessary, visiting Prince Edward Island to learn full particulars of what has been achieved along co-operative marketing lines, as regards eggs and poultry, Mr. Raymond will confer with provincial officers, county demonstrators, and others as to the best ways and means of developing the industry along similar lines in the province of Quebec. In this connection, a survey of the province will be made to ascertain the principal poultry producing districts at the present time, and those which give promise of ready development. The first policy followed will be to organize in conjunction with existing or prospective co-operative organizations, and to devise ways and means of reducing waste and marketing eggs of the highest possible quality.

Every means will be put forward to induce producers in Quebec to increase their production of eggs and poultry, not only to the end of supplying their own requirements, but also of contributing their share to the export business of Canada.

Having in mind Canada's tremendous financial obligations, it is of the utmost importance that the production of high grade, natural products be greatly increased. Furthermore, in order to conserve quality and prevent waste, every care and precaution must be taken in the successful marketing of those products, not only at home, but abroad.

With the training along scientific agricultural lines Mr. Raymond received at Oka and the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, and his work in Megantic County in connection with the promotion of co-operative shipping associations and his wide knowledge of conditions in the province of Quebec and his personal acquaintance with the demonstrators in that province, it is felt that Mr. Raymond's selection in the promotion of this work for the province of Quebec is a particularly fortunate one in the interests of agricultural development as a whole, and eggs and poultry in particular.

A considerable number of professional bicycle racers are comparatively old men. This bears out the claim that the use of a bicycle prolongs the youthfulness of a person.

A BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggly and Lulu's May Basket.

Copyright, 1917, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. (By Howard R. Garis.)

Uncle Wiggly Longears, the nice old rabbit gentleman, who could twinkle his pink nose like a sunflower, hopped to the door of the Wigglywobble duck house, and made a low and polite bow to Nurse Jane. "Where are you going?" Uncle Wiggly asked Nurse Jane.

"Over the see Grandfather Goosey Gander," was the answer. "Grandpa Goosey has the epitome." "Oh, that's too bad!" exclaimed Nurse Jane. "Here are some jam tarts that Mrs. Wigglywobble and I just baked. Take some to Grandpa Goosey." So Uncle Wiggly did, hopping over

MARQUIS OF ANGLESEY ON VISIT TO VICTORIA

The Marquis of Anglesey, who is visiting his British Columbia estate, has arrived in Victoria with R. Chetwynd, his representative in British Columbia, and is staying at the Empress Hotel.

The Marquis, who owns 4,000 acres in the Thompson River district, has been staying for some time near Kamloops on his estate.

The Marquis is the sixth of that name, and succeeded his cousin in 1905. He was mayor of Burton-on-Trent in 1911-12. He spent some time in the army and saw service at the Dardanelles as a member of the personal staff of General Sir William Birdwood.

He is keenly interested in business and displays a marked knowledge of both civil and financial affairs.

After a while Lulu, one of the Wigglywobble duck girls, came home from the hollow stump school. When she heard about Grandpa Goosey being in Lulu said:

"Oh, then, I'm going to take him some flowers! When anybody is sick they like flowers." "You'll get a basket of May flowers," said Lulu. "I'll get a basket of May flowers," said Lulu. "I'll get a basket of May flowers," said Lulu.

"This will be just lovely for Grandpa Goosey," said Lulu. "I'll get a basket of May flowers," said Lulu. "I'll get a basket of May flowers," said Lulu.

"I don't believe even that would make me laugh," quacked Grandpa Goosey.

"Oh, I feel much better now!" laughed Grandpa Goosey. And then Uncle Wiggly went down off his crutch and he and Grandpa Goosey were looking from the window when, all of a sudden, they saw Lulu Wigglywobble, the duck girl, coming along with a basket of May flowers.

"She must be bringing them to you," said Uncle Wiggly.

"Well, I'm sure that's very kind of her," spoke Grandpa Goosey. And the two friends were very much surprised suddenly to see the bad old Pipsawah hop out from behind a stump and make a grab for Lulu.

"Oh, dear!" cried Uncle Wiggly. "I guess he was hiding there to catch me for my mouse, but he has caught Lulu instead."

"This is terrible!" quacked Grandpa Goosey. "And I can't go out to save her on account of the epitome."

"I'll save her!" bravely cried Uncle Wiggly. And he was just going to rush out with his red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch, and may be tickle the Pipsawah in the ribs for all I know, when, all of a sudden, Uncle Wiggly and Grandpa Goosey saw Lulu thrust her May basket of flowers right under the Pipsawah's nose.

The bad chap took a long sniff, sniff and then, as quick as a blink, he turned a somersault over backward, and a front pepperaut and away he ran holding his paw to his nose.

Lulu looked at him, sort of laughing under one wing, and then she waddled on to Grandpa Goosey's house with the basket.

"Here are some flowers I brought you," said Lulu.

"But what made the Pip act so funny when he let him smell them?" asked Uncle Wiggly.

"Oh, that's too bad!" exclaimed Nurse Jane. "Here are some jam tarts that Mrs. Wigglywobble and I just baked. Take some to Grandpa Goosey." So Uncle Wiggly did, hopping over

Mrs. Tickner, who has been matron of the Next-of-Kin Memorial Home since December, 1918, on Saturday became the bride of Ernest Rance, late 67th Battalion, C.E.F., who has been a resident of the Home since his return from overseas last May.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. H. Andrews at St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, in the presence of a big congregation. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Home, Mrs. R. S. Day and Mrs. Guy Loughton welcoming the guests as they arrived. Col. Andrews proposed the health of the bride, after which formal presentation was made by Mr. Miller of a handsome china tea-service, the gift of the hotel residents to the bride. A. Caldwell, first to resident at the Home, came over from Seattle expressly to attend the wedding and presented the bride with a handsome silver tea set. The gift of the Next-of-Kin Association was a beautiful English damask bedspread. Music and dancing concluded the evening's festivities, a delicious buffet supper being served.

Music and dancing concluded the evening's festivities, a delicious buffet supper being served before the newly-married couple left for their new home at Prior Street.

On the eve of her departure for the East, Miss Clara Jones was given a surprise party by some of her friends at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Scott, 1123 Collinson Street, on Friday evening. Music, games and songs helped the evening to pass all too quickly. During the evening Miss Jones was presented by her fellow-workers at Tibbett & Co.'s with a handsome gold-mounted fountain pen. Miss Jones leaves on Thursday next for Truro, Nova Scotia, where she will spend the summer visiting her sister, Mrs. Thos. Robinson. Miss Jones will be greatly missed by a wide circle of friends, especially in connection with the Metropolitan Methodist Church, where she was associated with the Sunday School.

Local friends of the bridegroom will be interested in the following announcement from the Comox Argus of Saturday's date: "At St. Andrew's Church on Saturday afternoon last Mr. Baden Peter of Victoria was joined in holy matrimony to Catherine Mary McDonald also of Victoria. The bridegroom was supported by his brother, Mr. A. McDonald. The bride had not been in the district but has been staying with Mr. Treherne at the Calhoun ranch. He is now taking his bride to Oaklands, California, where they will make their home. Archdeacon Collier officiated."

Under the auspices of the Daisy Chain Junior Chapter, I.O.D.E., about seventy-five members of the younger social set had an enjoyable time at the "Bazaar," held at the home of Mrs. Duncan E. O'zard's orchestra furnished the music for dancing, which continued from 4 till 6 o'clock. Tea was served in the dining-room, which was charmingly decorated with bowls of pink tulips, the hostess being assisted in serving by Mrs. E. H. Mayhew, Mrs. Ben. Mrs. J. E. Umbach and Mrs. Sanson.

MADE HONORARY PRESIDENT

MRS. JOHN OLIVER

who was elected honorary president of the Vancouver Women's Liberal Club at their annual meeting held on Friday.

Feeling that their work in supplying much-needed furnishings and "necessary extras" for the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital is one which should have the interest and support of a large percentage of the women in the city, the Women's Auxiliary of the institution have undertaken the task of launching a city-wide campaign for membership. To effect this they have circulated every household, the authorities of Oak Bay, Victoria, and Esquimalt have kindly undertaken the delivery of the 10,000 little circulars sent out by the Auxiliary.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY LAUNCHES CAMPAIGN

Jubilee Hospital W. A. Circularizes City; Want 5,000 New Members

The circular reads as follows: "The Women's Auxiliary Society, Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital, invites you to become a member of the society, with the object of enrolling the name and sympathy of every woman in the city. The membership fee is $2.00. From May 26 to June 3 members of the society will be in attendance at Spencer's store (main entrance), between the hours of 10 a. m. and 6 p. m. to receive the envelopes and give receipt. If you are already a member, please enclose your fee, name and address, and send as above directed; if you do not care to become a member, perhaps you would enclose a note to swell our donation list. We want 5,000 of Victoria's women."

Does Splendid Work.

Mrs. Rhodes, the president of the Auxiliary, hopes that at least 5,000 women will respond to this appeal for she is confident that any work tending to the comfort of the sick and the suffering is one which will make direct appeal to women. The Auxiliary has done splendid work in service for the institution by furnishing up-to-date equipment for diet-kitchen and operating room, besides furnishing linen and blankets from time to time.

Tag days being no longer allowed by the city, this circularization of the women of Victoria has been resorted to in the hope of increasing the membership and the funds of the Auxiliary at one and the same time.

The Hudson's Bay Company

250th ANNIVERSARY

NOW CELEBRATING ITS

FUR--AND FURTHER

BY

SIR WILLIAM SCHOOLING, K.B.E.,

Author of

"The Hudson's Bay Company, 1670-1920."

IN one way or another Canada must sooner or later have been discovered and developed, but it is strange to reflect that the actual cause of its growth was the existence of fur-bearing animals in its lakes and rivers, its forests and its arctic regions.

The "Non-Such" Ketch sailed into Hudson Bay in 1668 and in the following year returned to England loaded to the waterline with a cargo of furs. Thereupon Prince Rupert and others obtained a Charter from King Charles II. and the expansion of the Fur Trade began.

The country was explored; trading posts were erected; birch bark canoes brought along the rivers the furs for distribution throughout the world. Towns and cities grew up round the trading posts and great stores replaced the forts where barter had been practised.

Wheat and cattle, settlement, gold and industry followed in due course. The Beaver in the Arms of Canada and of the Hudson's Bay Company fitly symbolizes the fact that Fur was the foundation of the growth of Canada, and in that further progress which the future holds in store the great Company that made the beginnings will continue to share.

SEVENTEEN LOCAL NAMES IN LIST

Results of Hudson's Bay Company's Competition For School Essays

Below is published the Judges' report and list of local winners in the Hudson's Bay Company's 250th anniversary school children's essay competition.

It will be noted that there are seventeen successful competitors from Victoria, which appears very creditable when it is considered that the time allowed at Victoria to prepare the essays was considerably shorter than the time allowed other communities.

The prizes and certificates will be mailed direct to the winners by the Hudson's Bay Company.

The accompanying are Victoria and District prize winners—Senior Grade: One of five $15 prizes, Victor Holker, the Willows; one of five $10 prizes, Kenneth L. Chapland, Victoria; engravings, Richard Tanner, Boys' Central; Horace Goad, Monterey Avenue; Marjorie M. French, the Willows; Elizabeth Kil-French, the Willows; Royal Oak; Len, Model; Rachel Ball, Royal Oak; Raymond Victor Bowers, Monterey Avenue; Mary Saw, Girls' Central; Cecil Kaunauht, Monterey Avenue; Philip Russell Williams, Monterey Avenue; Eric Barlow, Boys' Central; Junior Grade—Engraved Certificates: Counsel Martin, St. Michael's; Dorothy Siddal, Sir James Douglas; Gladys Penderay, South Park; Nancy Wollaston, South Park; John Facy, Boys' Central.

Judges Report.
In submitting the report of the School Children's Competition on "The History of the Hudson's Bay Company," Rev. R. G. McBeeta and Mr. B. Sparling desire to say that:

1. "The uniform excellence of the papers is matter for congratulation to the parents and teachers of the competitors as well as to the boys and girls themselves."

2. "It is gratifying to find that within a comparatively short time nearly eleven hundred boys and girls prepared and sent in their contributions from all over the Province of British Columbia."

3. "In some cases it was apparent, and it was mentioned in certain papers sent in, that some of the competitors had access to sources of information which were beyond the reaches of others, a fact which emphasizes the importance of homes and schools having on hand such books of reference as circumstances permit."

4. "We have followed with great care the regulations that were published in the press when the competition was announced. Hence, the papers were judged for neatness, spelling, handwriting, composition, and accuracy as to historical facts."

5. "This gave a wide basis for final decision as some who were excellent in some of these points came below the mark in others. According to the published rules, a reader who loses his membership card should notify the library, and at the end of one week if the card has not yet been found, a new one will be given on payment of 5c."

6. "Certificates of teachers who are mentioned as winners of prizes secured over eighty per cent. (80%) and all the winners of certificates secured not less than seventy-five per cent. (75%) of the maximum number of marks. A great many others, although not in this list because they fell below this high percentage, put in highly creditable papers."

7. "In addition to the list of winners, upon our recommendation, three special prizes of $15 each are being awarded by the Company to the following:

A. Hae Verrill, North Vancouver, for a history in Hawaiian verse, which shows talent that should be encouraged.

E. J. C. Watson, an aged and infirm inmate of the Old Peoples' Home, Vancouver, who writes an essay on the subject, securing an unusually high percentage of marks.

C. Geraldine O'Connor, Montrose School, Craig's Crossing, who as the youngest competitor writes in child-like language a remarkable history though she is only five and a half years old.

Canadian professional bicycle racers have won races in Paris, Brussels, Australia and the United States during the past year.

SICK HEADACHES For Last 10 Years

Headaches affect all ages and both sexes alike, but in all cases the treatment should be directed to remove the cause, for with the cause removed the headaches vanish for all time.

What is necessary for a permanent cure is something that will go right to the seat of the trouble. For this purpose it is impossible to find a better remedy for headaches of all description than Burdock Blood Bitters, acting as it does on every organ of the body to strengthen, purify and regulate the whole system.

Mrs. Flora Hall, Dominion, N. S., writes: "I have been troubled with sick headaches for the last ten years. I had lost faith in all remedies until recently a friend of mine advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. This I did, and found relief in a very short time. I would now recommend B. B. SCORES GOVERNMENT FOR WINNIPEG TRIALS

Labor Leaders Address Theatre Gathering at Crystal; Would Release Men

After rehearsing the events that lead up to the trial of the Winnipeg Strike Leaders, Rev. William Stevenson, addressing an audience of two hundred persons at the Crystal Theatre on Saturday last, said that the "crimes" as compared to the deeds of thousands not arrested.

"They had been technically broken the law, but if so the law ought to be changed and anyway the law is an 'hass'."

Free Speech.
"We here in Canada are 100 years behind," he continued, "both in labor movements and also, I feel, in religion—the workers in England have some backbone, and they are getting what they want." Reciting the differences between the two countries Mr. Stevenson told of an anarchist who was speaking in Hyde Park, advocating the elimination of the Crown and so forth. "He had two policemen to protect him," he continued, "there is free speech for you."

Manufactured Evidence.
That the government of Canada by its action with the strikers had used a dangerous weapon, he averred, and one that was likely to act as a boom-crang and strike back. He criticized police methods in collecting evidence.

Rev. William Stevenson spoke for nearly an hour, and received a warm reception from his audience.

Demand Release of Strikers.
In opening the meeting E. S. Woodward, president of the Trades and Labor Council, apologized for the absence of the Vancouver speakers who were to have delivered addresses on the conduct of the trials.

Mr. Woodward introduced the following resolution:

The Resolution.
"Resolved, that this Trades and Labor Council, representative of organized labor in the city of Victoria, views with great concern the strain-tortuous and devious methods adopted by the Government to secure the conviction of the Winnipeg strike leaders."

We feel that such methods are well calculated to shake the faith of the workers in the rectitude of ministers, and the probability of the judiciary, and cannot fail to impede the efforts of those who seek through constitutional means the redress of the many grievous wrongs of the working class.

"We further place on record our conviction that if but a criticism of the evidence presented in the bounding down of these men had been spent through the Minister of Labor in securing collective bargaining between the Metal Trades Council and the ironmasters, early in the strike, or if a similar portion of vigor had been used by the Government in bringing to justice the war profiteers by which a deep-seated unrest would have been removed, Canada today would be facing the reconstruction task under happier circumstances."

"Be it further resolved that the Minister of Justice be urged to consider the advisability of recommending to His Excellency the Governor-General the expediency of ordering the immediate release of the said strike leaders."

Major R. J. Burde, Christian Scientist, and many heads of the local unions were on the platform to speak on behalf of the resolution Saturday night.

The remark made by the Rev. William Stevenson that the Minister of Labor was a misnomer, and that that gentleman should have been styled the "Minister for protecting the interests of the capitalist against the working class," drew prolonged applause from the gathering.

R. P. Pettipiece, of Vancouver, was to have spoken, but the Vancouver delegation did not arrive. The meeting lasted several hours, and was unanimous in the sentiment of the resolution.

SAVED THE ANSWER.
One of the bicycle week features in Ottawa, Ontario, last year was a guessing contest in which the competitors were required to state the number of parts in a bicycle. A few days ago a little girl asked one of the local dealers if the contest was going to be held again this year.

"Why do you ask?" enquired the dealer.

"Because I saved the answer from last year," replied the youthful customer.

Inchidentally, the actual number of parts in a bicycle which has a coaster brake is 1,764.

The opportunity is one that musical Victoria will welcome, for Mme. Fahey's voice is appreciated here just as keenly as it was in the great Aeolian Hall, New York, and other important centres where she appeared.

Like the greatest vocalists and musicians, Mme. Fahey uses only

Seventy-Five Business Men Backing Ball Club

Look Upon Good Team As One of Best Advertising Mediums City Can Have; Get Away From Old System of One or Two Men Controlling Club.

Seventy-five prominent business men in this city are backing the Victoria baseball team in its efforts to win the championship in the Pacific International League. Instead of one or two sportsmen controlling the club as in former years, the business men have banded themselves together and secured the franchise. They look upon a first-class baseball team as one of the best advertising mediums that any city can have and when they were solicited to take out shares they immediately presented the required amounts. There is no chance of one man obtaining control of the club. As a result of a canvass of the city seventy-five business men each took a share of $100 and at a meeting they incorporated the Capital City Baseball Company for the purpose of operating the franchise. It will be impossible for any shareholder to secure more than one share. One baseball enthusiast offered to take twenty shares, but he was politely informed that the policy was to be one apiece. The fan then informed the club that should it require any further assistance he would be only too glad to lend a hand.

Advertising Feature.

"We do a lot of advertising to bring tourists to this island," said one of the shareholders this morning, "but we do not hustle like we should to provide further means for their enjoyment. Baseball will provide one means of amusement for them. It will also be one of the greatest advertising mediums we can have. The baseball team will travel as far East as Spokane, and the result of the games will be carried in hundreds of papers on the continent, thereby keeping the names of the city constantly before the eyes of a large section of the reading public. The ball team will also form a source of much pleasure for the citizens of the city."

Not only will it mean the billings of thirty-two baseball players in this city for ten weeks, or the equivalent of 2,520 men for one day, a greater assemblage than the Rotary Convention, but it will result in several excursions being brought to the city and the spending of considerable money. The people of Tacoma will send an excursion here for May 24. They are anxious to see the Hudson's Bay Company's Pageant. The baseball team from Tacoma will make the trip on this steamer in order to arrive here in time for the double-header. When Seattle opens the season in Victoria, J. A. Duthie, president of that club and also president of the large shipyards which bears his name, will close down the yards and bring all his employees over for a holiday. It will be a great day.

PLAY TWENTY-SIX INNINGS TO A TIE

Boston and Brooklyn Set New Record For Baseball; Darkness Stopped Game

Boston, May 4.—Boston and Brooklyn battled twenty-six innings to a tie on Saturday, breaking the former major league record of twenty-four innings established by Boston Americans and Philadelphia September 1, 1905, when Jack Combs, of Philadelphia, defeated Joe Harris, 4 to 1. The game was stopped on account of darkness.

It was a pitchers' contest between Joe Oeschger and Leon Cadore, with honors in favor of the Boston pitcher. He allowed only nine hits, and in sixteen innings the Brooklyn batters were retired in order. Oeschger has allowed only two earned runs in fifty-five consecutive innings this season.

The fielding on both sides was brilliant in the crisis. Olson saved Brooklyn in the ninth, when, with the bases filled and one out, he stopped Pick's grounder tagged Powell on the base line and then threw out the batter.

Remarkable Double Play.
In the seventeenth inning one of the most remarkable double plays ever seen in Boston retired Brooklyn.

The bases were filled and one was out when Elliott grounded into Oeschger. Wheat was forced at the plate, but Gowdy's throw to Holke at first was low and was fumbled. Konetich tried to score from second and Gowdy secured Holke's throw to one side and threw himself blindly across the plate to meet Konetich's spikes with bare fist.

Only twice did a Brooklyn runner reach third—in the fifth, when Krueger scored, and also in the seventeenth. Cadore was hit hard, but pitched superbly in many pinches. Boston threatened to score repeatedly but Cadore's mates came to his rescue.

How Runs Were Made.
Brooklyn scored in the fifth inning on a pass to Krueger, a fielder's chance and Olson's single. Boston scored in the sixth on Cruise's triple and Boeckel's single. Boeckel was thrown out at the plate trying to score from first base on Maranville's double to right centre Hood making a remarkable stop. Cadore's interception of the throw and quick pass to Krueger just nipping Boeckel, and made it possible to play the record-breaking game, which also equals the mark of twenty consecutive scoreless innings made by Pittsburgh and Boston September 1, 1918, when Pittsburgh—Cameron, Knickerbocker, Elliott; Oeschger and O'Neill, Gowdy.

"Save the surface and you save all" - Paint & Varnish

How Lighthouses guide everybody

THE great storms that lash the coast have all the chance they want at the country's lighthouses. No exposure could be worse than theirs.

And yet, did you ever see a lighthouse going to ruin? Did you ever see one needing paint?

Winter and summer they stand out on the most exposed locations absolutely at the mercy of the weather except for one thing—their protective coating.

The Government knows that paint and varnish save more than they cost. They bring the same returns to anyone who uses them—they are so much more than beautifiers, important as that is. They are protectors, preservers, custodians of property entrusted to them—watch dogs of your "treasure."

Wood warps, splits, rots—without surface protection. Metal rusts, corrodes, disintegrates—without surface protection. Stucco and concrete are improved by surface protection. The articles of daily use, subject as they are to wear, need surface protection. All deterioration starts at the surface. May we make this appeal strong and personal: "Save the Surface and you save all."

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT is issued by the Canadian Surface Paints Commission, for the purpose of educating the public in the preservation and protection of their property, and of the value of Paint, Varnish and Allied Products for the Conservation of Property, and has received the approval of the Canadian Trade Commission in the following words: "The realization of the above objects will lead to employment during the Reconstruction Period and bears out entire approval."

MORTON LOOKED GOOD IN YESTERDAY'S GAME

Held Bremerton Hitless For Five Innings; Victoria Won by 4 Runs to 2

Harry Morton, the big right-hander of the Victoria ball team, had the Bremerton players at his mercy yesterday afternoon. For five innings Harry put an assortment of curves over the plate that the navy yard boys could not do a thing with. They cut wildly at the horseshoe and then went back to walk a bench. As a result of Morton's fine showing the local team took the second game of the series by four to two.

Morton was relieved in the sixth inning by Russ James, the six-foot-four hurler. He was very wild and Bremerton scored twice on him. The big fellow showed a lot of stuff but was as erratic as a March hare. If he gets control of the ball he is due for a big season.

Frisko Edwards caught a beautiful game and picked off a bunch of would-be base stealers. His arm is in good shape and he is proving a handy man with the timber.

The Big Hitters.
Carman, who attends to centre field, led the hitters with three safeties. Goldie, left field, cracked out a home run with Leard on second. Bill Leard played a great game at second base and stole four bases. He will most likely prove the fastest base runner in the league.

On Saturday afternoon the Capetris trimmed the Bremerton boys by ten runs to eight. Jimmie Church slammed out a clout that went 1-0 four bases in the ninth innings and caused Zienle in ahead of him and won the game.

Elliot To Play.
The Victoria team is now in Tacoma getting ready for the opening game on Wednesday. Carter Elliot, the sensational short-stop, who was kept out of the Bremerton games with two cracked ribs, will be able to start in the opener.

They cut wildly at the horseshoe and then went back to walk a bench. As a result of Morton's fine showing the local team took the second game of the series by four to two.

Morton was relieved in the sixth inning by Russ James, the six-foot-four hurler. He was very wild and Bremerton scored twice on him. The big fellow showed a lot of stuff but was as erratic as a March hare. If he gets control of the ball he is due for a big season.

Frisko Edwards caught a beautiful game and picked off a bunch of would-be base stealers. His arm is in good shape and he is proving a handy man with the timber.

The Big Hitters.
Carman, who attends to centre field, led the hitters with three safeties. Goldie, left field, cracked out a home run with Leard on second. Bill Leard played a great game at second base and stole four bases. He will most likely prove the fastest base runner in the league.

On Saturday afternoon the Capetris trimmed the Bremerton boys by ten runs to eight. Jimmie Church slammed out a clout that went 1-0 four bases in the ninth innings and caused Zienle in ahead of him and won the game.

Elliot To Play.
The Victoria team is now in Tacoma getting ready for the opening game on Wednesday. Carter Elliot, the sensational short-stop, who was kept out of the Bremerton games with two cracked ribs, will be able to start in the opener.

ENGLISH RUNNERS WIN CLASSIC RACE

Set Up New Record and Beat Best Americans by Forty Yards

Philadelphia, May 4.—The Oxford-Cambridge Universities team of England won the two-mile collegiate championship relay team of America here on Saturday afternoon, defeating teams from seven of the leading colleges of the country. The University of Illinois quartette was second, some forty yards behind the flying Englishmen. Pennsylvania was third and Cornell fourth. The race was won in a new world's record time of 7 minutes, 50 2-5 seconds, supplanting the 7 minutes, 53 seconds held jointly by the Irish-American A. C. and the Yale University teams respectively in 1910 and 1916.

Cornell's runners set the pace in the first three runs of a mile with the Oxford-Cambridge team moving up from fourth to second. The second English runner, Stallard, set a terrific pace and finished with a slight lead, fainting at the mile. From that point on the English runners led all the way and won with some forty yards to spare. The average time for the four winning runners was one minute, 57 3-5 seconds.

The four runners were W. G. Tatam (Cambridge), H. B. Stallard (Cambridge), W. R. Milligan (Oxford), and B. G. D. Rudd (Oxford). One mile preparatory school relay championships won by Exeter, second, Huntington; third, Mercersburg, Time, 3:31.

Pole vault won by Landers, Pennsylvania, 12 feet 6 inches; second, between Webster, Yale; Gardner, Yale, and Harwood, Harvard, at 12 feet.

It is quite likely that had the Englishmen figured in the distance medley championship on Friday afternoon another world's record would have been set. Early press reports stated that the team had been left at the post. They were not called from their dressing rooms in time for the race. Two other teams besides the English runners, were left in the rooms while the field was sent away. Much dissatisfaction has been expressed over the incident.

MANY SURPRISES IN OLD COUNTRY SOCCER

Collapse of Notts County Unexpected; New Records For Goals by West Bromwich

London, May 3.—(By Canadian Associated Press.)—The unexpected collapse of Notts County at home with Preston Northend winning at Fordson Park, and Blackburn gaining a victory at Edgewood, gave Notts County the unenviable distinction of plummeting place in the first league table. Lincoln city, in the second division, will join with Grimsby and Leeds, and possibly Portsmouth and Darlington.

The Chelsea defence was easily beaten by the West Bromwich Albion forwards. This club's 104 goals constitute a new first league record. Tottenham won rather luckily over Birmingham, and Westham easily beat Stockport. Puddfoot signaling his re-engagement with a great display.

JIMMY WILDE LANDS K.O. IN FIRST ROUND
Lawrence, Mass., May 4.—Jimmy Wilde, British flyweight champion, knocked out Bobby Dyson, of New Bedford, in the first round of who was scheduled to have a twelve-round no-decision bout here on Saturday night.

Dyson started out aggressively and landed two blows, but immediately afterward went down for the count of nine from a jab to the jaw. He got up, and the knockout blow to the stomach followed.

INTERMEDIATES GAVE SENIORS LIVELY TIME

Metropolis Obtains Draw With K. of C.; Two Other Brown Cup Games Go by Default

Metropolis came near scoring a win over the fast Knights of Columbus soccer team at the Central Park soccer stadium yesterday afternoon. The game ended in a draw—one all—but the intermediate champions were entitled to a decision on the afternoon's play. In the second half they had opportunities to score but were beaten back more often by over-anxiety than by any effective work on the part of the Knights' backs.

During the first half of the game there was no score, despite the fact that the K. of C. had both the slope and wind in their favor. On the resumption of play after half-time, however, the Knights launched a heavy attack. The Metropolis backs were unable to keep up the rush with the result that Gordie Allan got an opening for a hot shot and scored without difficulty.

The Equalizing Tally.
The Mets came back strongly and kept the ball in the Knights' territory during most of the remainder of the game. Lynn, the speedy Mets' forward, got the ball at his feet, made a sensational run through and scored. This ended the scoring, although the Knights made several rushes which were easily broken up by the Mets' backs. At times the intermediates looked very dangerous as they kicked the ball about in the Knights' goal-mouth. If they had been a little steadier, they might have scored the goal which would have given them a win.

No Other Games.
No other games were played in the Brown Cup series on Saturday. Army and Navy won their match by default through the Wards withdrawal from the league. Harbor Marine also won by default from Yarrows.

BASKETBALL PLAYERS FINISH FINE SEASON

Two Championships Decided Saturday Night; Longest Season on Record

Several succeeded in netting three points from free shots, while the Pilgrims scored two free shots and missed three others.

In the second period Mary Hannan and Lily Christie scored for the Firsts and Betty Harkness made the game safe by going up the whole length of the floor and scoring a fine basket. Being nine points behind the Pilgrims worked hard to even up the score but were unable to find the basket. Sarah McGill and Gwen Hole worked well in the forward line, while "Paddy" Grant played a great game at guard.

Have Played Well.
The First Presbyterian ladies have therefore carried off the championship of the season. They have played well throughout the series. Most of the players have played on their team which won the honors on several previous occasions.

The Pilgrims have made a very good showing, this being the first time Centennials have had a ladies' team in the league.

The teams lined up as follows:
First Presbyterians—Dorothy Aird, Mary Hannan, Lily Christie, Betty Harkness, Dessie Forbes.
Pilgrims—Pauline Yule, Sarah McGill, Gwen Hole, "Paddy" Grant, Edna Leigh.

A Thrilling Game.
The real excitement of the evening was the championship game for the intermediate honors, between James Bay Methodists and the Crusaders. The Bays started off with a rush, outplaying their opponents in the early part of the game, and scored eight points before Crusaders got started. The first period was decidedly in favor of the Bays, their combination and shooting outclassing the Crusaders. Allan and Ryan, of the Bays, did some fine shooting, and when the first period ended the score stood, Bays 15, Crusaders 5.

The Crusaders opened the second half with a rush. Bass and Mills scored six points, and Sid Hole put

ANGEL BLOOM COLD
CREAM AS INCENTIVE

Picture at Royal Victoria Will Be Something Out of Ordinary

Dealing with a high-brow husband and a live-wire wife, "The Blooming Angel," which will be the attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre, three days only, commencing Tuesday, breaks loose at a laundry machine, runs the gauntlet of a big facial cream advertising campaign and winds up with a pink elephant and a red-letter day.

Sounds seductive, doesn't it? Well, it is! When Madge Kennedy, as Floralabel Brannon, breaks the peace of Dyak University as its most giggle cut-up and is fired out as a result, we know that steam is up. Romance takes hold of the throttle—or, we should say, the college laundry machine, when she weds Chester Frann, Chester is good. He's working his way through college to become a second Daniel Webster! And he is doing it by herding soap suds for students' shirts.
Chester doesn't make much of a success he gets a job at going commercial rates and it is up to Floralabel

RADIATE JOY AT INCE STUDIOS NOW

Doris May and Douglas
MacLean at Dominion
This Week

Doris May and Douglas MacLean, recent acquisitions to the ranks of motion picture stars, are "the life of the party" out at the big Ince studio these tumultuous days. Miss May is only seventeen years old, and Mr. MacLean is a youth in his early twenties. Happiness is their middle names. They fairly radiate the joy of life and oldtimers on the Ince lot say their presence is as good as a youth-bringing injection of Dr. Voronoff's famous "monkey serum."
Mr. MacLean insisted upon his dressing room being papered with a blue bird design and amuses himself and others between scenes by playing the ukelele and singing popular airs in a most jazzy manner. He was once a member of a college glee club and possesses a pleasant voice. Butterflies adorn the walls of Miss May's private room at the Ince studio. She breezes in every morning with a big bouquet of beautiful California flowers and presents everybody with one for their buttonholes.
High spirits and wholesome fun are the chief ingredients of "What's Your Husband Doing?" the new screen farce in which this delightful pair are featured. It is a picturization of a well-known Broadway farce and will be shown at the Dominion Theatre all week. The film was produced by Thomas H. Ince for Paramount-Artcraft.

Harold Lloyd is also seen in his latest comedy triumph, "Captain Kidd's Kids." It is a remarkable funny comedy of pirate days, a delightful entertaining offering, with lots of pretty girls and mirthful situations. For real thrill and excitement, the running of the Grand National Steeplechase would be hard to find.

EUGENE O'BRIEN
IN CAPTIVATING ROLE

"The Perfect Lover" at the Variety Will Gain Appreciation

Eugene O'Brien, the screen's handsomest and most popular actor, makes his debut as a star in "The Perfect Lover," a Selznick Picture production and a story particularly adapted to his talents.

"The Perfect Lover," which will be seen to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Variety Theatre, is an adaptation of Lella Burton Wells' famous novel, "The Naked Truth," and a Ralph Ince production.

It is the story of Brian Lazar, a young artist, who dreams of a career as a painter of beauty. Mrs. Byfield, a strikingly beautiful, love-starved woman in search of sensation, is attracted by a picture of a lovely, charming, country girl, which Brian has painted. She is informed by the master of the school that because he has not enough money to proceed with the calling of his choice.

Mrs. Byfield is impressed with the boy. She realizes that now is her opportunity to have what before she has been denied—the friendship and devotion of a dreamer—youth, handsome and idealistic. She takes him to the city where a start is made possible for him on an advance from her husband. He paints her picture and becomes the vogue among society women not because of his painting, but because of his good looks and charm. He is "The Perfect Lover." After many months of living in an atmosphere of intense among lea-sons women with weary eyes and insatiable lips—women whose husbands have no time to be lovers—he rebels.
He returns to the small country town and marries the little country girl whose picture brought him fame.
But he has forgotten how to work.
Here he is not the craze. People do not adopt him as they did in the city.
Fate plays a pretty mean hand until well, see the handsomest man on the screen in "The Perfect Lover" and learn what happened to him and his girl wife.

In "The Old Homestead," which Famous Players-Lasky will make into an elaborate production, the chief part, made historic by Denman Thompson, will be played by Theodore Roberts.

Mary Miles Minter is in the middle of production of her fifth Reelart picture from the well-known book by John Fox, Jr., "The Mountain European." Charles Maigne is the director and in the supporting cast are Monte Blue and John Dowers.

Among the virtues of Lydia E. Pink-

COWPUNCHER STORY
AT THE ROMANO

Wm. Desmond in "A Sage-Brush Hamlet" is Typically Western

William Desmond in "A Sagebrush Hamlet," his latest Robertson-Cole production, disturbed by Exhibitors Mutual, at the Romano Theatre to-day, plays the character of a cowboy who pretends to be "loved" in order to avenge his father's death.

This genial big star, who has created a serio-comic two-faced Western type all his own in such productions as "Bare-Fisted Gallagher," "Whitewashed Walls," and "The Prodigal Liar," has in "A Sagebrush Hamlet" probably the best role he has ever essayed. If not strongest dramatically, it undoubtedly affords him greater opportunities for the picturesque brand of humor in which he excels.

The gang "loved Larry" Lang (Desmond) trailed with were a hard-fist, hard drinkin' and ornery bunch of Hell-bent bandits, who would rather sleep in a corral drunk than in a bed sober. Larry started out to make a reputation as a drunken fool, in order to throw Dutton, the murderer of his father, off his guard and lure him from his retreat in Bottle Canyon.

The Lang ranch was no place for a tenderfoot young lady of refined and unsophisticated ideas, so when pretty Dora Lawrence, wished on Larry by a doting aunt, arrived at the ranch with her pet feather-bed, Larry threw a fit and bit himself in the ear. Good old Mother Dolan, Larry's hard-shell bighearted Hilberian housekeeper, conspired with Dora when Larry tried to get rid of the girl, and routed the "Sagebrush Hamlet" by means of a daring display of feminine lingerie which shocked the cowpuncher.

A hilarious and exciting melee occurs when the feather-bed becomes torn and emits a swirling cloud of feathers about the fighters. Through a shower of plumage and bullets
Larry fights his way with the girl.
Marguerite De La Motte, sprightly and talented, plays opposite Desmond as the girl who had come to stay. Others in an excellent cast are Florence Gibson, Frank Lanning, Ed Fiel, Walter Perry, Barriah Ingraham, Rosalie Serabon, George Fields and Bill Patton.

FAMOUS MINSTRELS
TO BE HERE SHORTLY

Georgia Minstrels Will Play
at Princess Theatre
One Night

Probably certain people have forgotten that they are minstrel fans because it has been so long since they had an opportunity to see a really first class minstrel aggregation—however the minstrel microbe will get them when the Famous Georgia Minstrels make their flash dress parade over our main streets announcing their appearance at the Princess Theatre, to-morrow night.
"Questionable Amusements" at one time was a common theme for debate, but the subject has been settled with a minstrel for never since the history of the human race started has the form of minstrel entertainment been questioned. The base ball game, the circus and the minstrel are three forms of innocent amusement which are patronized by tens of thousands of people who hold aloof from other attraction.

Creating of laughter, the rendering of tuneful music, charming songs, comical stunts and curious novelties, constitute the purpose of the minstrel. For this reason, the profession and the professional papers the performers and others engaged in the legitimate amusement business have been assured by the government that amusements of this character are not considered non-essential. No wonder, in these strenuous times, the demand for the minstrels is increasing until it is impossible for the management of a first class company like the Famous Georgia Minstrels to fill one half of the dates offered them.
People want to be entertained to laugh and thus their nervous systems are better tuned to the times.

With the Famous Georgia Minstrels are associated some forty people, all consisting of the very cream of the negro minstrel profession.
and after all the negro is the natural musician and minstrel of the human race, and during the engagement here will spring some more of their pleasing surprises.

Charles Ray, who bought fourteen of the Charles H. Hoyt farces in a bunch, has resold "A Texas Steer" to another producer, who will make it into a First National attraction with an all-star cast.

NORMA TALMADGE AT COLUMBIA THEATRE

Wilkie Collins's Story Is Shown in Filmdom All
This Week

Marie Callender (Norma Talmadge), known on the stage as Marie Max, an impersonator, quarrels with her manager on the eve of signing a contract. William Goldsmith, a wealthy admirer, proposes, but she refuses because she does not love him.

Marie's aunt urges her to accept Goldsmith's offer. She finally consents to an engagement, and all go to her fiancé's country home for a week-end.

While in the country, Marie accidentally turns the hose on Ernest Lismore, a young ship-broker, and Goldsmith's neighbor. She gets away without being seen, and that night, when Goldsmith tries to kiss her, she realizes she can't marry him and tells him so.

Later, when the house catches fire, Marie is rescued by Lismore, who again fails to see her face. Goldsmith soon dies, leaving Marie his fortune on the condition that she marry the man of her choice. Lismore goes to Europe and when he returns he finds his business ruined. He must obtain $100,000 quickly. Marie reads of his predicament and wants to aid him. She disguises herself as an old woman and explains to him that she has a large fortune which she can obtain only after marrying the man of her choice. She suggests a marriage of convenience. At first refusing, Lismore finally agrees.

Marie intends to reveal her identity after marriage, but Lismore is so stern that she decides to grow young slowly. Impersonating a young widow, she meets her own husband at a studio and flirts with him. This is carried on for some time until Lismore one night kisses her. Stricken with remorse, Lismore confesses that he is married and Marie upbraids him.

That night, Marie, in the role of the wife, tells him she knows of his affair in the village and offers to release him. Lismore confesses that he has made a terrible mistake, and that she is the only woman he loves. Marie forgives him and asks him if he wouldn't rather have a young wife than an old one. Lismore says he wants only her.

Then Marie takes off her wig and reveals her own young and lovely self. At first he is nonplussed, and then he realizes that she has fooled him all along for love's sake.

VICTORIA'S CIRCUS TO BEGIN THURSDAY

Buller's Will Be the First to Occupy the New Stadium
Site

With 100 trained animals—snow-white and spotted, large and small, ponies and thoroughbred horses, performing dogs and monkeys—a complete roster of circus turns of the highest order, clowns, bands, pink lemonade, pop-corn, and all that galaxy of things that bring back to mind the good old circus days, Robert W. Buller's Trained Animal Shows are coming back to Victoria. On Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, the opening performance will be given on the new stadium grounds in rear of the Empress Hotel, on Douglas Street, and on Thursday and Friday shows will be given at 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. each day.

Buller's Dog and Pony Show is one which appeals to young and old—and mindful of its appeal to the young—Mr. Buller has set the time for the opening performances at 4 p.m. to allow those children who are attending school to take advantage of the afternoon show without having to miss any school time thereby.

This is the second year of the Buller Show. It is coming back to Victoria—its own home town—larger and better than ever. There are some unique and most spectacular animal acts which denote the great degree of perfection that it is possible to reach in bringing out the well-known high order of intelligence of dumb animals by modern training methods such as those used by the staff of expert trainers who work under M. L. Carrigan, a noted expert in this line. One of the acts is a wonderful High School manage act, in which a number of large thoroughbred Kentucky horses perform without riders in the sawdust ring—an act which has no equal in any of the shows on the road to-day under the big top. There are pedestal acts in which a large array of ponies and horses take part, trick mules, a pony which walks the tight rope, leaping and diving and performing dogs, riding monkeys—and a large number of good turns. Then, too, there are the circus numbers. Mr. Buller has gathered together for this season some of the best circus turns under canvas. There are thrilling aerial trapeze performers, tight rope walkers, acrobats and tumblers, contortionists, and a great and funny staff of clowns, the whole making up a show of the highest order, clean and wholesome.

VINOL WILL MAKE RICH RED BLOOD

It Gives You a Hearty Appetite, Aid Digestion and Creates Strength

Your Druggists Guarantees
It

Thin, impoverished blood results in pale, sallow complexions, run-down anaemic condition, no strength, no energy and no ambition. The one great remedy for this condition is VINOL, our non-secret, cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, with which beef peptones and hypophosphites contained in VINOL acts very quickly in creating thousands of red corpuscles in the blood. It quickens the circulation, increases the appetite, aids digestion, and in this natural manner creates strength, healthy complexion, vitality, energy and enthusiasm.

For all run-down, nervous anaemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, and to create strength after sickness, there is no remedy like VINOL.

of unusually well balanced arrangement. Added to the vaudeville numbers will be the showing of the third chapter of "The Adventures of Ruth," featuring the popular screen star, Miss Ruth Roland, in a serial of romantic screen staging. This motion picture is already being anticipated by the patrons of Pantages Theatre as one of the special attractions of the weekly programmes.

Presenting a melodrama of love and adventure in the Far North, Harry Girard and Company offer "The Luck of the Irish" as the feature attraction of the bill. Mr. Girard wrote the book and music, which is original and characteristic, and the lyrics are by Mr. Joseph Breen, editor of The Seattle Times, and Mr. Oliver Morosco. Harry Girard needs no introduction to Victoria audiences before whom he has appeared on several occasions. He is assisted in the leading roles by Miss Agnes Cain-Brown, a talented artist of the light opera stage.

The special added attraction of the bill is the "Japanese Revue," a gorgeous Oriental scenic novelty presented by Harry Rogers. It is quite unlike any other vaudeville offering now before the public and shows Japan as it really is, and not as many producers of such acts imagine it is. A quartette of beautiful girls who are excellent vocalists is included in the act. There is also a classic dancer of ability and Miss Peggy Rogers, who offers a number of artistic poses, entitled "Visions of Japan." The electrical effects are original and add materially to the general success of the act. The scenery is hand-embroidered silk and satin made from special designs by the best artists in Japan, giving the audience an idea of the scenes actually shown in the best theatres of the flowery kingdom.

Alexander and Mack are a pair of funny comedians who make a lot of fun out of singing parodies on popular songs.

One of the most unique acts in vaudeville, "Catland," is another feature attraction. In this turn there are twenty little actors in cute and cunning capers. The actors are rats and mice, defying all laws of nature by living and working harmoniously together. It is a most amusing performance to children and grown-ups alike.

"Setting the Pace in Song, Dance and Laughs" is the billing of Waltzer and Dyer, a live wire team who are calculated to keep the audience in good humor throughout their time before the footlights.

Lonie Nace, singing comedienne, is a lady with a big voice and a winning personality. She sings a lot of new songs which are decidedly refreshing.

ESTATE ACQUIRED

Famous Players; Lasky Corporation Acquires Theatres

New York, May 3.—It is announced that the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, which has a capital of $12,500,000, has purchased outright all the interests of the late Charles Frohman, known as Charles Frohman, Inc. With this acquisition goes the Empire Theatre, which the moving picture magnates have leased for a term of twenty-one years and will exclusively control. The Lyceum Theatre in West Forty-fifth street has also been acquired by the Famous Players-Lasky interests as a part of the same deal. Their purchase outright of the New York Building in Broadway, from Forty-fourth to Forty-fifth street, which includes the Criterion Theatre, is already a matter of public knowledge.

This absorption by the motion pictures of the entire Charles Frohman Inc. interests is the most astonishing turn yet taken in the invasion of the spoken drama by the newer entertainment of the screens. It not only means that a great quantity of plays, including those by Sir James Barrie, made famous by the appearance of leading Frohman stars in their leading roles, are available to the moving picture managers, but that the latter will be able to underwrite and eventually control all future productions at the Empire and Lyceum—the two New York playhouses to which the finest artistic traditions are attached.

In discussing the purchase, Jesse L. Lasky said the plays now controlled by the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation would all eventually be produced on the screen, but not until they had completed their normal life as stage productions.

Mr. Lasky added that with the theatres and plays which the firm organization had acquired it now felt reasonably sure that no hostile stage combination could arise which would threaten its interests, and that it welcomed the competition of independent managers and felt that such competition would be a good thing for the stage.

Incidentally it is stated that best seats in New York theatres for coming productions will be advanced to $5.

Princess Theatre Amateurs to Meet.—The Victoria and Operatic Dramatic Society (pro tem) has called a meeting to be held in the Princess Theatre on Wednesday evening at 8.15, to which former members of the Red Cross Stock Company and the Princess Dramatic Society are cordially invited. The question of the next production will be discussed, and the business meeting will be followed by a programme and entertainment. As it is impossible in the short time available to reach all former members of these amateur companies, it is hoped they will accept this invitation.

Corinne Griffith, Vitagraph star, and an unusually large company of supporting players, are completing at Savannah, Ga., a feature entitled "Gumshoes 4-B." The picture is an adaptation of a prize story written by Forrest Crissey.

FAMOUS BARITONE
ON ORPHEUM BILL

Henri Scott Will Be Here
Direct From Metropolitan Opera

Henri Scott, the famous American bass-baritone, direct from the Metropolitan Opera, where he has been for the last four years, will appear in Orpheum programme this week. Previously he was three years with the Chicago Opera Company, and before that with Oscar Hammerstein at the Manhattan Opera House. He also has sung for years in the foremost European opera houses.

Perhaps no artist who ever sang leading roles at the Metropolitan has been more popular with the American audiences than Henri Scott, who is one of the few great American singers (his ancestors were Scotch-Welsh and settled in Pennsylvania in 1830), and whose entire musical education was gained in this country. Mr. Scott's great popularity has not entirely been won in opera, but by singing for many years in concert, recital and oratorio, and he has appeared and reappeared in exactly 45 cities of the United States and Canada, and these occasions have proven eminently successful, both artistically and financially, on account of his distinct personality. Mr. Scott is six feet tall, an athlete of note, and has none of the "mannerisms" of most of the operatic singers. His voice is of the robust type and he delivers his songs in a direct "American" way, each introduced by him in a kind of humorous and at the same time explanatory way.

RECONCILIATION
AFTER MANY YEARS

Indians From New Metlakatla
to Return to C. M. S.
Auspices

That the Indians of the Tsimpsan tribe who broke away from the Church Missionary Society with "Father" William Duncan some 32 years ago and went to New Metlakatla, where an independent mission was established, are returning as a body to the fold of that society under Archbishop Du Verne and Archdeacon Collison is the word that is brought from the Kincith Mission, says the Prince Rupert News. During Easter week a large number of these natives, belonging to the Church, Army and other organizations came down to Kincith Mission where a number of services were held. While their formal application for their reception into the Church Missionary Society was made and, it is understood, that this reception will be granted.

Great Celebration
Great was the celebration among the visitors and the hosts during this reunion. Services were held in plenty and a general feeling of rejoicing was rife among them. Great enthusiasm manifested in their singing and their devotion to Christianity as taught them by the hardy and brave missionaries of many denominations half a century ago would indeed be a source of gratification to them, could the have seen it. The story of how the village of New Metlakatla was founded over thirty years ago by "Father" Duncan has been the subject of many stories and the influence he had over the Indians was remarkable. With his death in August, 1918, they have been left without a leader, practically, and their return to the original missionary society is a matter that is being considered by the church. It is hoped that the recognition of the great gratification to the natives would indeed be a source of gratification to them, could the have seen it. For the occasion of the reunion the new electric light plant at Kincith is being inaugurated.

FINDS TROUBLE IN HOLDING TOGETHER

A motion that the New Westminster Trades and Labor Council resolve will be presented at the next meeting of that organization by Delegate Wm. Yates, who gave notice to that effect at the last meeting. Delegate Yates considers that the Trades Council has practically ceased to function and might as well be officially buried. Time after time, he declares, there have been but a handful of delegates at the meetings, and they do nothing. For instance, there were only seven people at the last meeting to discuss co-operative selling and other matters of particular interest to the workers, as well as to transact regular Trades Council business. If the various unions affiliated with the council, object to the central body being dissolved, they will have to come to the meeting and say so, he declared, otherwise the council is booked for the discard.

OPPOSES OPEN BOOKS

South Vancouver Municipal Officials Fight Move of Ratepayers For Publicity of Accounts.

Members of the Ratepayers' Protective Association of South Vancouver want to have a look at the books of the municipality to see how things are going on, but the South Vancouver officials say that ratepayers have no such right although Mr. Justice Macdonald recently granted a mandamus directing that the books of the municipality be opened for inspection.

Commissioner F. J. Gillespie of the municipality has instructed G. S. Wismer to appeal the mandamus grant of Mr. Justice Macdonald and the appeal is being filed at Victoria. It will be heard in June. Mr. Wismer claims that the Municipal Act gives the ratepayers no right to pry into the books of the municipality and that if they claim such a right under the common law, they must show some special private interest, which, in this case, it is claimed does not exist. The act only provides that the minutes may be inspected, but goes no further.

LUMBERMEN DENY CRITICISM MADE BY COMMISSIONER

Say They Are Always Willing to Cut to Sizes of U.K. Market

Victoria lumbermen and mill owners deny emphatically and without reservation the criticism voiced recently by Norman Johnston, Canadian Trade Commissioner at Bristol, England, that Canadian mills are failing to make headway in the British lumber market because they are not cutting lumber to the sizes to meet Old Country requirements.

"We are ready to cut exactly to specifications," J. O. Cameron, head of the big Cameron lumber interests, declared when questioned on the subject. "We are willing to cut to any size desired by the British buyer from one-half by one-half inch to 24x24 inches, and ship it in the shortest possible time, provided tonnage is available. We have never had an Old Country buyer ask for a certain size in lumber that we were not prepared to quote on and furnish. Of course, if the mills are in the middle of another big order it may take a short time to get the lumber cut, but there should be no serious delay."

"At present, of course, all the lumber we can cut is in demand on this continent. Just now we are cutting huge quantities for the railroads, and we are using it in way companies which are using it to build freight cars of which there is a great shortage, and bridges. In spite of the tremendous demands of this continent we have not turned down any orders from the United Kingdom. It is well to note, too, that there was never any complaint from the British Government about the dimensions of the order for 70,000,000 feet placed by the British Timber Controller with B. C. mills."

"In any case, we are shipping as much lumber to England as the ships available will carry. All the ships sailing from B. C. ports to British ports now are bearing all the lumber they can. It is impossible for B. C. mills to do more when bottoms are lacking."

BRANCH LIBRARY SYSTEM DEVELOPS

The system of co-operative library association made possible under the new Libraries Act has been responsible for a general Branch Library Service.

Miss Stewart-to-day told The Times that the new system was working to great advantage to the city—as the money obtained for the branch library concessions will be immediately turned into books for the parent body.

The library commission is busy making arrangements for the general adoption of the branch library idea and it is expected that the City Library will form the distributing centre for the entire Island District.
